

Kittrell Community Watch meets for July

The Kittrell Community Watch group met July 17 at the Kittrell Community House for a lesson on home alarm systems.

Edward Woodlief, Kittrell Community Watch president, called the meeting to order, and Patricia Rogers delivered the invocation.

Scott Ritchey demonstrated a high-visibility house number sign designed to assist emergency responders and encouraged those attending to install similar signs. The signs are available from Community Watch for a small fee.

David Ahner of Ahner Security Inc. provided a tutorial on home burglar alarm and video security systems. He demonstrated how to control an alarm system with a smartphone and displayed live video from a protected site. He also spoke about the advantages of professionally monitored systems that integrate smoke and fire detection with a burglar alarm. Throughout the presentation, he addressed numerous questions and comments from the audience.

Diane Bullock (from left) joins guest speaker Dave Ahner and Edward Woodlief during a July 17 meeting of the Kittrell Community Watch. Woodlief serves as president of the Community Watch group. Bullock serves as treasurer.

The next Kittrell Community Watch meeting is scheduled for Sept. 18.